Malaysian Federal Route 4 joins together the towns of Bukit Tunku and Bukit Kepong, but the road that leads from there to Port Dickson is actually in Johor State. The road is called Federal Route 5. For a three hour journey you will drive through Johor towns like Muar, Batu Pahat, Kluang and Segamat before arriving at the northern tip of Johor. From there, you will continue on to Port Dickson. The road is in good condition and is frequented by motorists and passenger ferries, which ply the route between Langkawi and Johor Baru.

Adrenal arterial aneurysm in a child: an unusual case of a large hemorrhage with retroperitoneal hematoma. Adrenal artery aneurysms are a rare pathology. It is uncommon in children due to the generally benign character of this lesion. The most common clinical presentation is abdominal pain and most of the time the lesion is asymptomatic. The hemorrhage is usually slow-progressing and is usually handled by transcatheter embolization. In the following, the authors describe the case of a 16-year-old boy with a large retroperitoneal hematoma which was resolved after successful embolization of an adrenal arterial aneurysm. The authors also discuss possible diagnostic and therapeutic modalities which are based on both the medical literature and the authors' experience.

Olympics: Pole Perfection After Huge Win April 18, 2012 This may not be a world record, but it's quite a feat: Katerina Ivinovska's run to the Gold Medal in the women's ski jumping competition at the Vancouver 2010 Olympic Games was undoubtedly the best run of any gold medalist. Canada'
